Class History

In September, 1948, we entered high school. Although we felt like babes lost in the woods, we were really getting somewhere at last. It seems like a dream now to think of some of the silly things we did.

During our four years in high school, we had the pleasure of having Mesdames J. F. Funderburk and J. M. Hamlet, and Messrs. M. A. Quick and W. E. Bateman as our teachers.

In our Freshman year, we were a class of eighteen. During the year Evelyn Bagby dropped out, having left the district. Those remaining were:

Annette Averette
Alma Boyd
Mildred Day
Josephine Evans
Kathleen Evans
Miriam Fuller
Gustavia Gentry
Cynthia Long
Alma Melton
Alice Melton
Esther Poindexter
Harold Denny
Buddy Flynn
Charles Knott
Sterlin Knott
Howard Nelson
Ben O'Briant

As Sophomores, we began to feel braver, and more as if we belonged. Only fifteen enrolled that year. Miriam Fuller and Ben O'Briant transferred to other schools. We felt very happy because the class remained intact until the end of the term.

Well, time really flies. Here we are Juniors. The Seniors said we were just dumb Juniors, but we thought ourselves wise old owls. There were sixteen in the class that year, with the following dropping out:

Annette Averette
Helen Day
Josephine Evans
Kathleen Evans
Howard Nelson

At last came the year we had been eagerly waiting for. We had earned the title "Dignified Seniors." Twelve enrolled this year with only Alice Melton dropping out. We eleven "Allenites" of the Senior Class expect to stick together until the end. We are:

Alma Boyd
Mildred D. Nelson
Gustavia Gentry
Cynthia Long
Alma Melton
Esther Poindexter
Harold Denny
Buddy Flynn
Charles Knott
Sterlin Knott
Franklin Lowery

Class Prophecy of 1951 - '52

One evening as I sat alone with my thoughts, I picked up the Allensville News. Glancing over the pages, I seemed to recall some of my old classmates. There on the first page was a picture of STERLIN KNOTT, who was running for President. As I read on, there was an article about HAROLD DENNY, the famous movie star, who was taking his vacation in Hawaii. There were also some rumors about his romance with his secretary, READIE POINDEXTER. Then I turned to the sports page; there was BUDDY FLYNN, the World's Best Baseball Player. As I looked on, I saw a picture of MILDRED DAY NELSON and husband on their 25th wedding anniversary. An article entitled "Famous Recipes," by ALMA BOYD, caught my eye. I turned a page or two and found the first installment of a mystery story. I read it and decided I would keep up with it. When I looked at the name of the author, it was none other than GUSTAVIA GENTRY. I turned to the next page and, much to my surprise, there was a picture of CYNTHIA LONG, who had won the title of Miss Roxboro. On the very last page of the paper was a picture of a '50 Ford owned by FRANKLIN LOWERY, said to be the fastest running car around, but the new state patrolman, CHARLIE KNOTT, who had been in town only a week, had just caught Franklin for speeding. Feeling that I had had enough surprises for one evening, I put the paper aside and thought over the good old days with my classmates.

Class Prophet,
Alma Melton
